BROOKLYN NEWS.

Razors on Policeman Dillon.

he Latter Overpowered and Subdued Him with His Club.

Confident that He's the "Barber Shop Burglar."

After a short but desperate encounter, which a burglar attempted to use a shoemaker, who says he lives at wer) and Hester street, New York, as captured by Policeman J. J. Gillon, the lower Fulton street station, rooklyn, at 12,30 o'clock this morning nd locked up in a cell. In the arrest of Ryan the police beive been pouring in at Police Headparters from the proprietors of barber hops whose places had been broken and robbed. The boldness of the urglar was illustrated last week, when i a single night two barber shops—one joining and another immediately back Adams street station-were street, and who slept over the store, as awakened by the noise of somebody moving about in the store. He crept ownstairs, and just as he was about in peer into the store through an open of a man thrust a pistol under his shut up.

street, saw him running and joined in the chase. He overtook the burglar at Poplar He overtook the burglar at Poplar street and reached out to grab him. The man turned quickly and dealt about a stinging blow in the face, shich sent him reeling into the gutter. Then he turned a corner and disappeared. Several politemen searched he vicinity, but could zot find him. When they returned to Muccio's shop hey discovered that the burglar had tolen 75 cents from the till. For several nights Policeman Gillon as been specially detailed to watch arber shops in the Second Precinct. It is shoped in the Second Precinct at 1220 o'clock this morning he saw man trying to open the door of Philip lenn's barber shop, at 87 Cranberry treet. He asked the man what he sorning.

The street avenue, of being a disorderly child and Justice Quigley committed her to the House of the Good Shepherd, a refuge for disorderly women.

Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She testified that the girl left home on Sept. 13, and refused to return. Mrs. Judge, of Mc-Kibben street, a sister of Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She testified that the girl left home on Sept. 13, and refused to return. Mrs. Judge, of Mc-Kibben street, a sister of Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She testified that the girl left home on Sept. 13, and refused to return. Mrs. Judge, of Mc-Kibben street, a sister of Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She testified that the girl left home on Sept. 13, and refused to return. Mrs. Judge, of Mc-Kibben street, a sister of Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She testified that the girl left home on Sept. 13, and refused to return. Mrs. Judge, of Mc-Kibben street, a sister of Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She testified that the girl left home on Sept. 13, and refused to return. Mrs. Judge, of Mc-Kibben street, a sister of Mrs. Rheinhardt was the only witness against her daughter. She tes as doing there at that time of the was as doing there at that time of the forning. The forning there at that time of the work in a factory and bring home her wages. The hold forning to the girl's on she prisoner and took him on the hand, sending the razor shape a blow in the face.

As Ryan rafsed the razor above his lead to renew the attack Gillon struck and to renew the attack Gillon struck and to renew the attack Gillon struck and to the street. Before Ryan could work the street. Before Ryan could work the fight Gillon brought his club won on Ryan's head and sent him selipped and the station-house, where an ambuance surgeon was called to dress a scalp wound that the prisoner had received.

When asked where he got the razors the work in a factory and bring home her work in the rain to seek work as best she might. The child found refuge with an old friend, Mrs. Scheeder's good the proved too much for her strend, Mrs. Scheeder's good character Justice Quigner has been work in the rain to seek work as best she might. The child found refuge with an old friend, Mrs. Scheeder's the with whom she remained a faw days until she secured employment. The work proved too much for her strend, Mrs. Scheeder's posserved employm

wed. When asked where he got the razors declared that he had never seen them fore. During the fight Gillon saw the isoner throw a cigarette-holder away, was taken to the station-house later At a lodging-house at Bowery and rester street this morning it was said that Ryan was not known there.

In the Adams Street Court this morning Massino fully identified the prisoner as the man who had broken into his em-oyer's shop. Ryan was held on a charge of bur

MOTORMAN BERNARD HELD.

Court, this morning, charged with running down Clara Ross, six years old, of 347 Halsey street. ning down Clara Ross, six years out, or 36 Haisey street. The child was crossing the street, near her home, when the car appeared. She slipped and fell with her foot on the outer rail. One wheel passed over the right ankle, cutting off the foot. Ambulance Surgeon Glynn removed the foot, which was hanking by a shred of fiesh. The child was taken to her home, where she was kept under opiates all night. Her condition is critical. Bernard was admitted to $500 bail to await the result of the victim's injuries.

A JOB, SAYS HAVILAND.

The Real Estate Man Protests

Against Flatbush Ave. Extension. Mayor Schieren, of Brooklyn, to-day ceived a letter from C. Augustus Haviland, a real-estate agent, protesting against the proposed extension of Flatbush avenue. Mr. Haviland dences the scheme as a job, and says he believes the Mayor has been misled says if the Mayor wants to en-Frank Hallock Missing.

NORTHPORT L. I., Sept. 25.-Nothing has been heard of ex-Town Clerk J. Frank Hallock.

of Smithtown, who disappeared on Thursday last. Hallnek went to New York on business, and has a someticrable amount of money with him. He is the san of George W. Hallock, a wealthy farmer. Brooklyn Brevities.

Six-year-old Emily O'Mears, of 26 Chape treet. Brooklyn, while playing on a Gre-excape is a third-story window this morning fell thirty-tive feet to the ground. She sustained a frac-ure of the skull. At the Brooklyn Hospital is was said she would probably die.

John O'Day forty-five years old, and his aughter Nellie, twenty-two years old, of 515 livas atreet. Brooklyn, quarreled early this norming, and Nellie threw a knife across the com, striking her father on the nose. O'Day Joseph Linds of the complaint. Joseph A. Kay, of 207 Prince street, Brooklyn teld the police this morning that a thief has Eltered his home and stolen 1200 worth o levelry and 100 in money.

FOUGHT A BURGLAR. SAID HER BABY WAS DYING, GRAND JURORS AT THE JAIL

gvan Drew a Pistol and Two Mrs. Brimlow Pleaded with Justice "The World's" Exposure of Walsh to Release Her.

> She Was Detained, However, and Sheriff Buttling and the Raymond the Infant Taken Care Of.

her ten-weeks-old baby so that Justice with indictments sick, and was taken care of, but Mrs. for censure. The jurors visited Ray-Brimlow was locked up. She lives at mond Street Jail yesterday afternoon, 245 Greene street, and about two weeks and the Warden and Sheriff Buttling are ago her husband got a warrant in the row on the anxious seat. Ewen Street Court, Williamsburg, for It was the Grand Jurors' first visit since Brimlow dropped in the street from the arrest of Ryan the police be-ve they have made a most important again until to-day. When she was and the existing traffic in liquor. apture. For several weeks complaints arraigned she had her child in her arms, and while denying the charge

Ryan was at work trying to enter another place last night, when he was surprised and captured by Policeman Gillon. He had been successful in a burglary earlier in the evening.

Shortly before it o'clock last night Salvatore Massino, a boy, employed by Joseph Muccio, a barber at 91 Fulton street, and who slept over the store, was awakened by the noise of somebody moving about in the store. He crept downstairs, and just as he was about to peer into the store through an open.

LEFT A PAIR OF TROUSERS.

Ryan's Clothing and Jewelry. LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Sept. 25.grapher, on Lathrop street, near Grand avenue, was robbed last night.

When Mr. Ryan returned home at on his front stoop. Thinking it has to remind him that he was out late Mr. Ryan took the clothing and place MOTORMAN BERNARD HELD.

His Car Bore Down on Little Clara
Ross and Severed Her Foot.

Motorman Edward Bernard, who had charge of trolley car 1,434 of the Putnam avenue, Brooklyn, line, was arraigned in the Gates Avenue Police

Mr. Ryan took the clothing and placed it inside the door. He then went upstairs to bed and was soon fast asleep. The burglars had seen Mr. Ryan committee the burglars had seen Mr. Ryan committee the burglars had seen Mr. Ryan committee the burglars had seen Mr. Ryan took the clothing and placed it inside the door. He then went upstairs to bed and was soon fast asleep. The burglars had seen Mr. Ryan took the clothing and placed it inside the door. He then went upstairs to bed and was soon fast asleep. The burglars had seen Mr. Ryan committee t

To Arrest a Diamond Thief.

Detective Raleigh, of the Brooklyn Central Office, started for Philadelphia to-day with a warrant for the arrest of Louis J. Joseph, a jewelry thief, who is charged with stealing a diamond stud and a gold watch, with chain and looked from Ballay Cohon, a search before

To Arrest a Damond W.
Mails close, Vessels sail.

'aris, Southampion ... 8.09 A. M.
Westernland, Antwerp 10.09 A. M.
Vigilancia, Havana 1.09 P.M.
Vigilancia, Havana 1.09 P.M.
Joseph, a Jismond stud and a gold watch, with chain and looked from Ballay Cohon, a search before is monof stud and a gold watch, with chain and lucket, from Balley Cohen, a pawn-broker, to 584 Fulton attest. Juseph gave a 1445 check a payment, which proved to be worthless. It is said that he awindled other jewellers in procking.

Society People at the Fair. MINEOLA, L. I., Sept. 25.-The annual fair of Queens County Agricultural Association was and vegetable shows were very fine, and a large number of scelety people were in attendance. The handsome premiums offered in the horse-racing department are expected to bring out some fine Thousands Given for Charity.

The will of Mrs. Anna Haliday Maxwell, who lied Sept. 11, was filed with Surrogate Abbots u Brooklyn to-day. Of an estate valued at in the stant of teachers, ten new instructors baving been engaged and several members of the old Faculty have retired. The number of pupils on hand to-day was about 1,000.

Intercepted a Letter. Mary Madden, of 40% Sixthestreet, Brooklyn, was Beginning the New School Year.

examined by United States Commissioner Bel-

When Baby was sick, we give her Castoria. When she was a Child, she orlid for Castoria When she became Miss, she ching to Castoria, When she had Children, she gavethem Castorie Abuses Begins to Bear Fruit.

Street Warden Are Nervous.

When the September Grand Jury of Can't you see that my baby is dying?" Kings County appears in the Court of As she spoke, Ellen Brimlow held up Sessions, Brooklyn, on Friday next, Walsh could see it. The baby was very Sheriff "Billy" Buttling may come in sick, and was taken care of, but Mrs. for censure. The jurers visited Ray-her arrest on a charge of being an they adjourned for the Summer, and also the first inspection since "The Evening dents of 151 Elizabeth street, the adwhich the institution was conducted the first inspection since "The Eventus dents of exhaustion and was not able to be out upon which the institution was conducted

The Grand Jurors questioned many of the prisoners, tried the food and obarms, and while denying the charge against her, she suddenly cried out the prisoners, fried the food and observed the sunitary arrangements of the place. If the jurors hear the evidence of some of the immakes who have begged points the court were a number of worm of the court were a number of worm friends. When she said her baby was dying these women crowded around, and they all shrieked together.

Court Officer Sweeney, who has studied medicine, told Justice Walsh and they all shrieked together.

Court Officer Sweeney, who has studied medicine, told Justice Walsh in the child was in a very bad way, and he hurried out of the court-room tiary to ten days in Raymond Street Justice. Walsh refused to let the prisoner go, although all the women pleaded in churus. Finding their prayers were of no avail they trooped out for the purity pose of securing a bondsman.

The magistrate's reason for not discretized in the child not ever expect to see alive again.

HER MOTHER AGAINST HER.

A 15-Year-Old Girl Committed as a Disreputable Person.

A 15-Year-Old Girl Committed as a Disreputable Person.

A 15-Year-Old Girl Committed as a Disreputable Person.

A CEI ESTIAL FEIID.

The Grand Jurors questioned and of the place for the place. If the places, fried the food and observe retained to the place in the place was a standard and west for her baby. Whom she did not ever expect to see alive again.

The magistrate's reason for not discretized to the United States Grand and the place of the place

A CELESTIAL FEUD.

A Pretty Teacher Parts Chines Damon and Pythias.

Chung Bing, of 388 Macon street against her daughter. She testified that Court this morning, obtained a warrant the girl left home on Sept. 13, and re- for the arrest of Quon Ham Lee, of 108 Grand street, on a charge of threaten-

Mission on Gates avenue, near Lewis

Celestial was very much in love with her.

Last Sunday the young lady was assigned to teach Chung Bing. Lee is intensely jealous, and when he saw her talking to Bing, he picked up a chair and threatened to brain Bing. Bince then Lee has sworn to be revenged, as the teacher refused to have anything more to do with Lee.

Bing has been living since Sunday in constant fear, and this morning, accompanied by the superintendent of the Mission, he got a warrant for Lee's arrest.

SHIPPING NEWS.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAY. HIGH WATER TO-DAY. LOW WATER TO-DAY. To find Eastern standard time, subtract four minutes.

PORT OF NEW YORK.

	ARRIVED.
Alene	An Kin Kin Perna Wilmi
Wittekind City of St. Au	gustineJackson
Ot	TGOING STEAMERS.
	SAILED TO-DAY.
Aller Orinoco George W. Cli Kansas City	yde Ber
Servia	Ldv

TO SAIL TO-MORROW

INCOMING STEAMERS.

Hypatia DUE TO-DAY. Shields Sept. New Orleans New Orleans Sept. Werkendam Rotterdam Sept.

FOREIGN PORTS. SIGHTED.

Beginning the New School Year.

The Adelphi Academy began its Fall term this norning. A number of changes have been made in the staff of teachers, ten new instructors saving been engaged and several members of the old Faculty have retired. The number of the old Faculty have retired. The number of pupils on hand to-day was about 1,000.

LEVARD, Sept. 25.—Passed, steamer Edam, TORY ISLAND, Sept. 25.—Passed, steamer BROWHEAD, Sept. 25.—Passed, steamer Pupils on hand to-day was about 1,000.

BUTT OF LEWIS, Sept. 24.—Passed, steamer Persia, from New York for Hamburg.

Mount Morris Park Concert. There will be music at Mount Morris Park this There will be o'clock, by Eben's Seventy evening at 8 o'clock, by Eben's Seventy Regiment Band. Following is the programme 1. American Patriotic Air, "Hail Columbia," Fyles Syne", Muller

1. American Patriotic Air, Fyies
2. Overture. "Auid Lang Syne" Mulier
3. Concert Waitz. "Roses from the South
4. Descriptive Gavotte. "Sweet Kisses" Vollarest
5. Grand Fantaisie. "Cisrinet Solo" Bassi
T. G. Pouinelli.
6. Salection and Intermetato from "I Pagliacot," Leoncavallo
1. Overture to "Riengi" Leoncavallo
2. Movement de Valse, "Fliritation" Steck
3. Roman Triumphal Trumpet Solo, "Salute to America" Hoch America" Prof. Theo. Hoch
Medica Prof. Theo. Hoch
Belection from "The Decert Flower" Wallace
March, "The American Guard" Eben
Dedicated to the Berenty-first Regiment.
Finale, Halleiujah from "The Messiah"

ACCUSED OF FRAUD.

Fannassi and Sullivan Turned Over to Federal Authorities.

The Former Once Naturalized Under the Name "Damiano."

Their Friend "Madden" Tried to Get a Witness to Perjure Herself,

Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court to-day committed Pietro Fannassi and Charles Sullivan to the care of the Kings County appears in the Court of United States officials, charged with Sessions, Brooklyn, on Friday next, having attempted to fraudulently secure and presentments, a naturalization paper for Fannassi. The men were arrested yesterday Judge McAdam's order. He recognized > naturalization paper Sept. 14, under the name Angelo Damiano. After the arrest of the men yesterday

Fannassi as a man who had secured of the men lived there.

A clerk in the naturalization office of Indicted for Larceny and Arrested on a Beuch Warrant.

Francis Reilly, formerly Treasurer of the United Order of American Carpenters and Joiners, Lodge No. 1, was arrested this morning by Detectives Von Gerichten and Reilly on a bench warrant issued by Recorder Smyth on Sept.
21. Reilly was indicted last week for the larceny of $436.46 in his possession as Treasurer of the above lodge. The affidavit accompanying the papers in his case alleges that Reilly confessed to stealing the money and begged for time to make it good.

He was taken before Police Justice.

avenue. The trouble between the two men, who were fast friends, arises over a pretty teacher in the Mission, whose name at present cannot be learned. It seems that up to last Sunday this young lady had been Lee's teacher, and the Celestial was very much in love with her.

Last Sunday the young lady was assigned to teach Chung Bing. Lee is intensely jealous, and when he saw her talking to Bing, he picked up a chair and the trans Bings.

VOGES MAY PLEAD GUILTY.

Embessling Cashier Wants His Case Called To-Morrow.

Charles A. Voges, the cashier for Nay-lor & Co., the Wall street iron and steel brokers, who was arrested last Saturday morning for the larceny of $20,000 from morning for the larceny of $20,000 from his employers, was arraigned before Recorder Smyth, in Part I, of the General Sessions, this morning.

He was without counsel, and entered a plea of not guilty to the indictments. He asked that the case be put on the casenda; to-morrow, at which time, it is said, he will plead guilty to the charge.

Voges was released from ten months imprisonment in Long Island jall Saturday on a civil process involving the same matter he is now arrested for. He has acknowledged his stealings.

TWENTY DAYS FOR YANCEY.

Tried to Jump His Hotel Bill at the Windsor.

John B. Yancey, who claimed to be a representative of the British India Tea Hubbs sent a message to her by Detec-Co., and on his representations secured a week's board at the Windsor Hotel, was tried in the Court of Special Sessions to-day for attempting to jump his hotel bill.

George Stockholm, of the hotel msnage; United States Express Company in HOLINESS CONVENTION.

Six Days' Study of "Entire Sane tification" Begun To-Day. A week's Holiness Convention was be gun this morning at the St. Bartholo-

The morning meetings will be devoted to sermons and lectures, preceded by song service, led by Grant C. Fuller, a singing evangelist of Washington, D. C. The afternoon and evening meeting will be devoted to hearing the testimony of converts.

3 Great Souvenir Days The formal OPENING of

"THE FAIR"

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday,

No useless Picture Cards, Musical Exhibition or Floral Displays for these three days; this money is to go to you.

Millinery.

Aglow with beauties; foreign and original ideas, gained by many years' experience. 500 ladies' trimmed hats, only for this souvenir sale,

$2.98 to $7.98 Silks.

Children's trimmed hats,

Ladies' Untrimmed Hats.

Felt hats, newest shapes and colors, worth 59c, souvenir price 370 Fine French felt hats, our greatest favorite, number 281, worth 83°C $1.25, Corsets.

ZZ imported corset, white or gray, all sizes, worth $2.00, souvenir price, $1.89 P. N. gray and black, 18 to 30, 63c worth $1, souvenir price

Dress Goods.

50 pieces covert cloth, the lates: fabric and newest cloth for fall wear, worth 89c., souvenir price per 400

Black satin figured armure, 42 inches wide, all wool, worth $1.25, souvenir price 89c

All the desirable evening shades and black China silk, worth 49c . 25c souvenir price, per yard,

$1.98 Upholstery, Curworth $4.00, souvenir price $1.98 tains and Pictures.

200 pair chenille curtains, bordered and fringed top and bottom, worth $2.49 souvenir price $1.39 50 dozen 4-4 chenille sable covers worth 69c., souvenir price 39c souvenir price 700 size 1 [113] complete, worth 25c, souvenir price 140

Handkerchiefs.

Ladies' white embroidered hand-

Cloaks and Suits. Laces.

Ladies' blue and black cheviot suits souventr price $2.98

Capes, coats, suits at souven's prices. Ladies' black capes, new patterns, souvenir price $2.98 worth $4.00.

Ladies' capes (for the elderly ladies), worth $8.00 souvenir price. $3.98

Ladies' jackets, small lot, worth $4. $5 souvenir price, $1.98

Infants' Wear.

Infants' short eiderdown coats, trimmed with deep Angora fur, 2 to 5 years, worth $2.25. souvenir price $1.33

Infants' long coats, silk embroidered cape and collar, worth $1.39 Infants' bengaline silk caps, all the desirable colors, worth 50c.. 25c

600 white enamelled framed pictures, Ladies' Silk Waists.

Heavy surah silk, lined throughout. very full sleeves, crushed collar, and with belt, worth $5.50. $3.98

Black silk bourdonne, 10 inches wide, souvenir price per yard. 28c

Glove Dep't.

Ladies' 4 large white pearl button kid gloves, all the desirable ahades, 74c worth $1, souvenir price, pr., Souvenir prices in ladies' and chil-dren's gloves,

Linens and Domestics.

10-4. worth $3.00, souvenir price, $2.46 100 dozen knitted fringed towels, openwork, worth 25c., souvenir price, 15c

Shoes.

Forsyth St. L.
Ladies' button bright dongols kid shoes, patent leather up, opers and Philadelphia toe, worth
$2.49, souvenir price $1.49

Ladies' bright kid oxford ties, diamond patent leather tip, worth $1.79 99C

Souvenirs in men's, women's and children's shoes.

NEW JERSEY NEWS.

MRS. HUBBS ACCUSED.

Held on a Charge of Murdering Her Boarder, George Moore.

She Prepared the Lunch After Eating Which He Died.

Her Daughter Sweetened the Alleged Poisoned Liquid. Mrs. Alice Hubbs was held on a charge SMITH FIRED AT A BURGLAR the brother of George Moore, was held as a witness by Civil Justice Mars, acting as Police Justice in the absence of Police Justice Douglass. family present was her eldest daughter, Mary, a tall, blonde girl, of twenty years. She sat near the bar and cried

Moore's corpse in the stable of the silently throughout the hearing. Mrs.

testified: took his lunch out of the pail. He had houses in the Neck Row on Grove sandwiches and two pieces of pie. He street were entered, while the flats on examined it all carefully. He drank a Front street were ransacked by the cup of the ten or coffee. 'That tastes thieves, who entered by means of a ladcup of the tea or conee. I hat tastes very bad, said he, and poured some of der in the rear.

It on my hand, it smarted. I tasted it. Architect Charles Smith awoke and it on my hand. It smarted. I tasted it. Architect Charles Smith awone and it on my hand. It smarted after found a burglar in the next room. He mew's Mission, Forty-second street, It was very bitter, in a minute after room.

"I heard him say: 'Oh, Jimmie, Jimmie, and ran into the room and found him lying on a baie of hay, his arms outstretched. I tried to hold him! could not. He said, 'I guess they are got me this time.' I called the others and went to the Lehigh Valley Railroad office telephone to ring up an ambulance. I wasn't gone over two minutes. When I came back he was dead.

"Sunday morning about I o'clock George told me he was having trouble where he was getting his me and was going to leave there and to get mis bruther to leave.

Justice Maes asked Mrs. Hubbs if she would like to ask the witness any questions.

"I have none to ask," was the answer, in a low, firm voice.

John Adriance, of 237 Pine street, Jersey City, an employee of the stable, de-will be devoted to hearing the testimony of converts.

Cape Vincent's Big Fire.

(Ith Associated Press.)

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 25—A serious configuration broke out in the Jerome Hotel at Cape Vincent, at 2 orlock this moraine, devouring most of the business part of the village. The Jerome Hotel, the Hotel Alsonquin, eight stores the regregated to the put some water on his head, and present lited, the Hotel Alsonquin, eight stores the hards. The loss will amount to $150,000.

Hurt in a Runsway.

Gustave Hullerman, twenty-three, of $27 West Thirty-ninh street, was driving a berse and wagon at Teuth avenue and Perty-fourth street to-day, when the bords became unmanageable and wagon at Teuth avenue and Perty-fourth street to-day, when the bords became unmanageable and yn away. Hullerman was thrown out of the wagon and received a fractured wrise.

Says His Mother Drove Him Out. Trelve-year-old James Jones says Cast his father is dead and that his mother has driven him from the house where she lives, at 146 Goorch wites. Hubbs wheed her eyes and father is dead and that his mother has driven him from the house where she lives, at 146 Goorch wites. Hubbs wheed her eyes and safety while his story is being investigated.

You read the Evening World!

You read the Evening World!

You read the Evening World!

it alongside of the pail. I put sugar into the coffee, put a cloth over it, and set the pail on the refrigerator where he could get it."

John B. Moore made no statement. He was held as a witness and ball was fixed at $1,000. He is thirty-eight years old, and came from Washington, N. J. two years ago, with his brother George. He is a large man, apparently consumptive.

He is a large man, apparently consumptive.

The date of the inquest has not been fixed. Detectives are looking up Mrs. Hubbs's record. She says that she is thirty-six years old, and was born in Sunbury. Pa. Her maiden name was Alice London. She married Conrad Hubbs, a brakeman on the Erie Railroad, who now lives at Sunbury, when she was sixteen years old. After their marriage her husband told her his true name was Doherty. Her husband left her three years ago. She was committed to the county jail.

Newark Police Raid Tramps Capture Two Gangs.

field This Morning.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Sept. 25.-Under cover of the darkness, caused by the breaking of the electric-light circuit. United States Express Company, in a number of robberies were committed Communipaw. Moore was the night in this city early this morning, only foreman of the stable. James Moffett, articles of small value being taken in an employee of the express company, most of the places, but at the home of testified:

William Smalley, on Craig Place, considerable jewelry was stolen. All of the mew's Mission, Forty-second street, near Third avenue, under the auspices of the Mission Superintendent, Col. Henry H. Hadley, assisted by Rev. Joseph H. Smith, of New Castle, Ind., and a score or more of clergyman from New York and adjacent States.

The Convention, or "Retreat," as it is advertised, according to its programme, is for a six days' study of "Entire Sanctification as meant and taught by the Bible."

Delegates, numbering nearly two hundered, are in attendance from New York State, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia and all of the New England States.

The morning meetings will be devoted to sermons and lectures, preceeded by Song service, led by Grant C. Fuller, a singing evangelist of Washington, D. C. The afternoon and evening meeting will be devoted to be the serimony will be devoted to be the singular to the leave."

It was very bitter. In a minute after drinking the tea Moore went into another room. He drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms. He drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms. He drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms. He drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms. He drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms.

It was very bitter. In a minute after drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms.

It was very bitter. In a minute after drinking the tea Moore went into another rooms. He drinking the tea Moore went into another room.

It was very bitter. In a minute after drinking the tea Moore went into another room.

It was very bitter. In a minute after drinking the tea Moore went into another room.

It head Moore went into another room and think in the next room. He drinking the tea Moore went into another room.

It head him spire on a bale of hink darkenss.

NEWARIK, N. J. Sept. Z.—While rid. In the darkenss.

NEWARIK, N. J. Sept. Z.—While rid. In the darkenss.

NEWARIK, N. J. Sept. Z.—While rid. In the darkenss.

NEWARIK, N. J. Sept. Z.—While rid. In the darkenss.

NEWARIK, N. J. Sept. Z.—While rid. In the mother room.

NEWARIK, N. J. Sept. Z.—

The Farmer's Adopted Daughter and Her Admirer Arrested.

Annie Davenport's Strong Influence

with the Old Man.

Which He Was Robbed.

Asked Him to Draw the Money o

(Special to The Evening World.) HILLSDALE, N. J., Sept. 25.—Residents of this town are greatly excited over the arrest of Annie Davenport, of Hillsdale, and George Van Houten, of Hackersack, on the charge of robbing the house of Simon Mead Sunday more ing, while the family was at church. Miss Davenport, as she called herself when she came to this place less than a year ago, made her home with her father, William Davenport. Although she claimed to be a widow, she took her maiden name, and supported herself by dressmaking and going out to service. She had not been long in the place before she made the acquaintance of Farm-

She had not been long in the place before she made the acquaintance of Farmer Mead and his family, and was engaged by ...m as a servant. She is a comely woman, about forty years old, and has very pleasing manners.

She worked herself into the good guaces of the Mead family, and Mrs. Mead being old and decrepid, proposed to her husband that they adopt her, as they had no daughters of their own.

Mr. Mead agreed to this, and the bargain was consummated, they promising to will her the house and lot in which they live, after their death, providing to will her the house and lot in which gain the confidence of the old couple by putting new life into the heretofore dull farm-house. Old man Mead bought a two-seated surrey and was seen on the road so frequently with his newly adopted daughter as to cause scandal in the neighborhood.
Miss Davenport, finding things a trifle slow, cultivated the acquaintance of young George Van Houten, of Hackensack. She persuaded Farmer Mead
Miss Davenport, finding things a trifle slow, cultivated the acquaintance
of young George Van Houten, of Hackensack. She persuaded Farmer Mead of Maiss Davenport, finding things a trifle slow, cultivated the acquaintance
of young George Van Houten, of Hackensack. She persuaded Farmer Mead of Mead's bed for safe keeping.

Sundror His Eloping Daughter.

AVONDALE, N. J., Sept. 2.—It is add that the small sum of $75 will settle the vendetta between the families of Ferrara and Mantata at this place.
The condition of the daughter
dannatic at this place.
This maney, the fore were and a some and not accept the vendetta between the families of Ferrara and Mantata at this place.
The curry and was were as they had
no daughters of their own.

This was consummated, they promising and revolvers. The grown it was said, would attempt a rescue, and the people of Avondale have scarcely dared to sleep nights, fearing that a civil war in-law had agreed to settle and give up the girl for a money consideration of 75. This the young man says he will never pay. H ed were arraigned before Judge Mott, and sent to jall for ninety days each on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Stephen Jerrett reported to the police to day that he had been attacked at midnight while returning from a reception in Bloomfield. He had a considerable sum of money in his possession and screamed for help. An employee of the Soho print works at Bloomfield came to his assistance and the footpads were frightened away.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

The Old Reliable SWEET CAPORAL CIGARETTE HAS STOOD THE TEST OF TIME.

More Sold Than All Other Brands Combined.

IT'S A $75 VENDETTA. Mantata, Sr., Said to Demand that Sum for His Eloping Daughter. AVONDALE, N. J., Sept. 25 .- It is

Chances, but Her Fiance Was

Papa Said the Girl Must Take

Miss Davenport took a trip to Hackersack. Van Houten drank too much and indiscreetly displayed several twenty-dollar gold pieces. The arrest of the couple followed and they are now in the Hackersack Jail.

President Reinhart Improving.

Plainfikl, N. J. Sept. 15.—The condition of President J W. Reinhart of the Atchison. Topka and Santa Fe. who is seriously ill here, has not changed materially to-day. His physicians say, however, that he is slowly improving and may be out in a few days.

Fatally Hurt Under a Car.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Sept. 15.—While attempting to board a freight train to steal a ride at noon to-day, John Walters, colored, forty years old, fell between the cars and had both his legs cut off. He was removed to Ali Souls Hospital and will die.

Still Hunting for Romano.

HOBOREN, N. J., Sept. 25.—The police of this inty believe that Murderer Romano, of New York, in concessment here, but search for him has thus far proved unsuccessful, Several New York detectives were here looking for him yesterday.